

Application process

Dates

The program runs from mid-September to early/mid-June, with a new intake (or 'cohort') every year.

The application process

This involves short answer questions, reflection essays, and an interview. These questions and stages will differ slightly for Residential and Local membership applicants. It is free to apply.

Residential membership

- Read the FAQ and 'Is it for me?' documents
- Stage 1 - Fill out the online interest form
 - Admission to Stage 2 is on a rolling basis
- Stage 2 – Fill out the online application form
 - For this stage, you will need a PDF copy of your CV or resumé
 - Admission to Stage 3 is on a rolling basis
- Stage 3 – Interview via Zoom with program coordinators
- Stage 4 – Invitation to join the community, discernment period before the candidate accepts or rejects their offer

Local membership

- Read the FAQ and 'Is it for me?' documents
- Stage 1 - Fill out the online application form
 - For this stage, you will need a PDF copy of your CV or resumé
 - Admission to Stage 2 is on a rolling basis
- Stage 2 – Interview via Zoom with program coordinators
- Stage 3 – Invitation to join the community, discernment period before the candidate accepts or rejects their offer

Offers will be made between mid-January and late March/early April. We advise applicants to apply as soon as possible so as to obtain priority review status and maximise the discernment period.

If you have any questions or concerns about this timeline, please contact us

Finances

Please see our FAQs document